

More beautiful today than she was in her hay days.

Through a partnership with The National Trust for Historic Preservation, Lowe's Charitable and Educational Foundation proudly supports the future of America's history by providing restoration grants for projects like the West Monitor Barn in Richmond, Vermont. For more information about this and other restorations, visit www.nationaltrust.org/lowesgrant.

