

Conservation Camping Crew Leader

Program Overview

VYCC's Conservation Program engages young people in hands-on projects that benefit Vermont's environment and communities. The work of a Conservation Crew includes trail construction and maintenance, carpentry, water quality improvement, and forest management. Crew Leaders are essential to the success of any Conservation Crew and their efforts have a significant impact on habitat, water quality, and outdoor recreation in Vermont.

Position Summary

Crew Leaders work with their crews to complete trail, water quality, carpentry, and forest health projects. Each week starts at our headquarters in Richmond, VT. Leaders arrive early on Monday morning to prepare to leave headquarters with their crew by 7:30am. At 7:30am, leaders drive to the project site with their crew. Leaders are required to camp in the field with their crew throughout the week. Crews come back to headquarters every Friday with the work week ending at 5:00pm.

On a daily basis throughout the week, leaders are responsible for ensuring camp life runs smoothly, camp chores are done, administrative responsibilities are finished, and projects are completed to a high standard of quality, while working and living with their crew the whole time. This typically takes an average of 45-55 hours per week of scheduled tasks, with potential for additional time depending on level of organization or crew needs.

A successful Crew Leader is able to foster an inclusive and supportive crew community, help Crew Members navigate challenges and celebrate successes, and provide opportunities for personal and professional growth while staying organized and managing their time effectively. Creating and maintaining a healthy crew culture is a top priority for Crew Leaders.
